Woman accused in rape of schoolgirl

A stooped 76-year-old woman cut skin tissue from a schoolgirl and then helped her co-accused to rape the girl three times before they let their victim go. These facts emerged in the Pietermaritzburg High Court yesterday from the indictment against the woman, Thawana Zungu, and co-accused Tony Mkhize (45), both of Pietermaritzburg. Both pleaded not guilty to the rapes, the kidnapping of the girl and the aggravated assault on her. The case was adjourned to Monday. – Sapa
