RE: The South Gauteng Division High court is expected to deliver judgement today, 15 April 2014, on the bail application filed by Mr. Radovan Krejcir.

SOUTH GAUTENG HIGH COURT-The accused was denied bail by the South Gauteng High court in January 2014 and has since brought an urgent bail application on so called "new facts" before Magistrate Reginald Dama at the Palm Ridge Regional Court, who denied the accused bail on 28 February 2014. Mr. Krejcir again appealed to the High court to have the decision by Magistrate Dama set aside.

Mr. Krejcir was arrested on the 22nd of November 2013. He is facing charges of contravening Section 5 of the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act 140 of 1992 (dealing in drugs), kidnapping and attempted murder. His five co-accused in the matter are Mr Desai Lumphondo, Mr Samuel Modise Maropeng, Mr George Jeff Nthoroane and Mr Jan Lefu Mofokeng (who were all released on bail of R5000 on the 13th of December 2013) and Siboniso Miya (in custody). The trial of all six accused is expected to begin on 5 May 2014.
