Glen Agliotti pleaded guilty to dealing in drugs. He appeared today before the Alberton Regional Court sitting in Germiston. As part of the plea and sentence agreement entered into with the State and sanctioned by the court, he has been sentenced as follows:

- Ten year imprisonment, suspended for five years on condition that he is not found guilty of the same offence during the suspension period;
- R300 000 fine or five year imprisonment and
- R200 000 to be paid into Criminal Assets Recovery Account (CARA)

A further condition is that he is expected to testify frankly and honestly in the matter: S v Paparas and others. This conviction follows investigations that were carried out by the Scorpions where a huge consignment of drugs (Hashish) in excess of two tons and street value of more than R200 million were seized in July 2006 in Alberton. Eight people (Agliotti inclusive) were arrested.

Cooperation from Agliotti in respect of this case has placed the State on an even firmer footing in so far as investigations are concerned.

The National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) is satisfied with this sentence as he received the highest penalty a Regional Court can impose.
