The acting National Director of Public Prosecutions held a further meeting at the National Prosecuting Authority's (NPA) head office in Pretoria today with senior management and the team responsible for the prosecution of Mr. Jacob Zuma in order to consider representations he (Zuma) has submitted to the NPA.

We have recently been supplied with additional information by Mr. Zuma's lawyers which has necessitated further investigation, verification and careful consideration.

The NPA is treating this process with utmost urgency it deserves. We will communicate the outcome of this process of consideration to Mr. Zuma's lawyers as soon as a decision is in place.

We would like to urge all, media included, to exercise patience and allow space for this process to be concluded.
