The rape and abduction case against Lekwa-Teemane Local Municipality mayor in the North West, Mpho Meshack Pilane (36) was postponed to 29 March 2021 by the Delareyville Magistrates Court.

Pilane faces charges of abducting, sexual assault and raping two girls aged 15 and 16 years in Delareyville.

The case was opened in Christiana but was later transferred to Delareyville where the incident allegedly occurred. Pilane then made his first court appearance on 14 December 2020.

The accused is still out on R1000 bail until his next appearance where a regional court date is expected to be announced.
