The review panel that was appointed to review the matter of the charges against the National Police Commissioner Jackie Selebi, has today submitted a report containing its findings and/or recommendations to the acting NDPP, Adv Mokotedi Mpshe.

The acting NDPP will study the report and the NPA will make known its decision as soon as it is ready to do so.

With respect to the matter of Mr. Jacob Zuma, the investigations are ongoing. The prosecuting team will today present a final briefing to the acting NDPP, and he will announce his decision on the matter after careful consideration of all information presented.

This process is a very protracted one and involves the assessment of all the work completed thus far.
