RE: TWO SAPS OFFICIALS APPEAR IN COURT FOR TEENAGE MURDER

The Protea Magistrates Court postpones the matter involving members of the South African Police Service (SAPS), Simon Scorpion Ndyalwane (46) and Caylene Whiteboy (26) who appeared on charges of murder earlier today. They are also charged with unlawful possession of ammunition, discharging a firearm in a public space and defeating the ends of justice.

The charges emanate from the fatal shooting of a teenage boy, Nathaniel Julies, in Eldoradopark on Wednesday, 26 August 2020. The state alleges that the police officers used ammunition that is prohibited by law and that they attempted to discard evidence.

The matter was postponed to 10 September 2020 for legal representation and a possible bail application hearing.
